New Membership Applications

If your organisation has not been a member of ANGOA in past years, please include with this form:

- a copy of your organisation's Constitution, if you have one;
- a statement of your aims and objectives, if these are not in the constitution;
- a list of officials or executive members;
- a letter to the ANGOA Coordinating Committee applying to become a member, confirming that your organisation supports the objectives of ANGOA, and will pay the annual membership fee. (this is required under the ANGOA Constitution)
- information for the ANGOA website.* If you want to be listed please provide:
  - the name of the appropriate contact person
  - phone number
  - your own website address
  - a short description of what your NGO offers (about 20 words max)

* The ANGOA website includes a list of contacts for member organisations. We do not publish your email address, to avoid it being picked up by spammers.

You are welcome to send these documents as an email, with attachments if necessary.

Membership applications are generally considered at the next meeting of the ANGOA Coordinating Committee after they are received, and confirmed by the AGM.

We look forward to working with you, and warm thanks again for your support.
